C31 Melbourne and Victoria is a not-for-profit television service providing locally-based entertainment, education and information. C31 provides access and representation to the many diverse communities within Victoria. Transmitted from Mount Dandenong, C31's signal reaches homes throughout Melbourne and Geelong, and is also transmitted via Neighbourhood Cable to regional Victoria.

Broadcasting in over 20 different languages, you can find faces, voices and issues which are not present in mainstream television.

C31 has been servicing Melbourne's communities since October 1994.

C31 broadcasts twenty-two hours of programming every day, with over 1.3 million Melburnians tuning in each month. For further information on community television in Melbourne and Australia, you can visit the stations web site.

ABOUT OUR PROGRAM

Spirit of Life is a multi-denominational Christian program consisting of in depth interviews with people from all areas of Christian life, from many denominations across the whole range of the Christian community.

It is produced through Northern Access Television, a member group of C31 Melbourne and goes to air on C31 Melbourne on Sundays at 11pm

It is produced by two Catholic Lay people, David McLauchlan and Mirella Rich, with the help of a variety of volunteers.

The episodes on these DVD's all feature Catholic subjects.

One of the aims of the program is to show the diversity of the Christian Community both to itself and to the wider community.

It's format gives the time for the in depth telling of the stories of the people interviewed.

We also have streaming video of current and past programs available on our web site.
